FIRES AND FLOODS.

The Two Engines of Destruction Cause Great Loss to Life and Property Throughout the Country.

WASHINGTON, April 13. At 9 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the engine room, adjoining the stock room and press room, of the Evening Star office and although the alarm was promptly given and the entire department responded immediately, the fire spread rapidly toward the interior of the third and fourth floors. At this hour the second, third and fourth floors are gutted and the press room badly damaged. The magnificent Potter press is thought to be completely ruined, and the two Hoe presses are damaged to some extent. The stereotyping room is in ruins, but the machinery is probably not seriously injured. The fire is still burning furiously in the interior of the closely built block and seems to be working to the rear of Gale's big jewelry store. The entire fire department is at work, but as there is no way of access to the interior of the block, except through or over the high buildings composing it, the firemen are seriously handicapped in their work. The National Tribune has offered the Star the use of its facilities and the paper will appear this forenoon, but probably in a reduced form. No estimate of the losses or insurance can yet be obtained.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., April 13.—Henry Ettenson's great mercantile house here was almost totally burned to the ground by fire last night. The building and contents were valued at $200,000, with a total insurance of less than half that amount. The building was a handsome three story brick, almost new, with mansard roof, and was filled with a stock of clothing and dry goods. The conflagration was the most disastrous encountered here in many years. At 1 o'clock this morning the south wall fell into the street, and several firemen escaped being killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—The steamer China arrived after midnight, bringing Oriental advices up to March 30. Particulars of the fire at Hamanatsu state that it originated in a theatre at 2 a. m. A strong wind was blowing. Two hundred and fifty buildings, including several large buildings, two well known inns, two banks, the postoffice, etc., were burned. Several lives were lost.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 13.—A fire occurred shortly after 1 o'clock this morning in the city hall, while a great crowd still waited about the building to hear the result of the charter election. The firemen, when they arrived, found the flames burning fiercely in the second story, but they soon had the fire extinguished. Great excitement prevailed among the large number of persons who witnessed the fire, and many of them, on account of the defeat by the republicans of the so-called ring, expressed the opinion that the fire had its origin in some dire political plot. Certain it is that the fire was of a very mysterious character, as there was nothing inflammable or likely to cause flames in the office where it originated.

EDINBURG, Ind., April 12.—At midnight last night a terrible destructive fire was raging. At that hour the following establishments were consumed: S. S. Drybread, furniture, W. H. Parrish, livery stable; G. W. Morgan, furniture factory, and a butcher shop. A bank and many residences were in immediate danger, and the town is absolutely without fire protection. The loss will be heavy.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 13.—The Press and Corning mills of the Moosic Powder company were blown up about 11 o'clock this morning, killing several men and injuring a number of others. John Gibbons, George Carey, Edward Vanderberg and James Coolbaugh were killed and probably two others. The wrecked buildings caught fire and were destroyed. The citizens had great difficulty in saving adjoining buildings. Great excitement prevails in the village, which is seven miles from here.

JACKSON, Miss., April 13.—The water in the Tombigbee river is now falling. The number of drowned has reached 125. When the waters subside entirely it is thought other bodies will be discovered. It will be several days yet before the river gets inside its banks. In many places it was upwards of ten miles wide. Mounds that have never before been overflowed were under six and eight feet of water. Houses in numbers were swept away. The water is falling in the Big Black river. All the work put on crops will be lost. In the overflowed district many farmers had almost finished planting both corn and cotton.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 13.—The Red and Assinbone rivers here are just about bursting over their confines. The water last night was only thirteen feet below the highest point of the business center of the city and much uneasiness is felt by merchants and property owners. The ice is still solid and if the jam occurs, when it breaks up, there is sure to be a big flood. Parts of the Northern Pacific Transfer railroad are now under water and five big bridges are in imminent danger of being swept away. Goods are being removed from warehouses on the river front. The basements of the Northern Pacific hotel and other buildings are flooded.

ROBBED THE OLD LADY.

Husband, Daughters and Wealth Deserted her at Once.

WASHINGTON, April 13. Mrs. Addie E. Baker, of Staunton, Va., has arrived here in search of an eloping family consisting of her two daughters, her second husband and his son. She says that after she had been a widow some time she married Mr. Baker, a widower living near by. He induced her to turn her farm into money and then started for Washington, ostensibly to see about a war claim. He took the girls, aged eighteen and twenty, along for a visit. Last Friday Mr. Baker received a letter from her husband saying she need not expect them back. He was going to marry her daughter Hattie and her son would marry Amanda. He had about $2,700 of Mrs. Baker's money.

SLOW POISON.

Sensational Results of an Investigation into the Death of an Officer.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 13. For some days a report has been current that Gamble Weir, late superintendent of the police of Pittsburg, was slowly poisoned to death. It has now been developed that the body was dug up from its grave in Greenwood cemetery a few days ago and the stomach submitted to a chemical analysis. Those who caused the body to be exhumed were the dead superintendent of police's brother, County Commissioner J. G. Wier, Dr. J. M. Dickinson, of Allegheny, and Mercantile Appraiser Henry Pfeil, after which the stomach was submitted to Prof. Hugo Black for examination. After an analysis Prof. Black found enough arsenic in the stomach to kill several men, it is reported. It is claimed that the poisoned drug that did its deadly work on Mr. Wier's system had been administered to him by slow degrees, for several weeks before his death, and that its work was extremely slow. Harry Pfeil, in a conversation on the subject last night, confirmed the story. Gamble Wier was reported to have died of stomach trouble, and on the night of his demise he was reported to have suffered terrible agony.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Hon. and Mrs. Gladstone Have a Thrilling Experience.

LONDON, April 13.—The Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone in starting for Hawarden today had a narrow escape from serious accident near the Euston square station. Owing to the streets being slippery, the horse attached to the carriage fell. The horse struggled to its feet, but fell again, breaking the shafts. The carriage was violently jolted, and it was feared that it would turn over. There was a rush of spectators to assist Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone. The venerable couple remained cool. Mr. Gladstone alighted as quietly as if he was at the door of Hawarden hall. He then gracefully assisted Mrs. Gladstone out, and hailing a cab, helped Mrs. Gladstone into it. The baggage was then removed from the wrecked carriage and loaded on the cab. Mr. Gladstone gave a glance to see that the fallen horse was being humanely attended to and then entering the cab, he was driven rapidly to the station, which he reached in time to catch his train.

Chancellor Houck is a brilliant and elegant priest, and is doing grand work in the ministry. He came from Cincinnati this morning and leaves for Cleveland tonight.

KEYSTONE DEMOCRATS.

Meeting of the Delegates to Select a State Ticket—Harmony Prevails.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 13.—The convention delegates and their followers were stirring at daybreak, though most of them had had little sleep. A conference of the leaders was called in Mr. Harrity's rooms at 9 o'clock. State Senator Ross and Congressman Beltzhoover were in attendance and there was some discussion of possible slight changes in the slate that was fixed up last night. The conference finally determined, however, to leave the program unchanged. Mr. Beltzhoover's speech was submitted and approved and Mr. Ross outlined his remarks for approval. The conference adjourned at 9 30 o'clock.

The opera house doors were thrown open at 11 o'clock, an hour before the time for which the convention was called.

After roll call John R. Reid, of Philadelphia, took the floor and placed in nomination for temporary chairman Hon. F. E. Baltzhoover. Nominations were closed and Mr. Beltzhoover was unanimously chosen. John R. Reid and Hugh Crielly, of Lehigh, were appointed a committee to escort Mr. Beltzhoover to the chair. Mr. Beltzhoover was received with cheers. His speech was enthusiastically received.

When Mr. Beltzhoover got down to the naming of candidates a man in the gallery cried, "How about Hill for a democrat?" and was greeted with hoot ing, mingled with cheers. The friend of Senator Hill continued to talk, however, and his interruptions attracted so much attention that Mr. Beltzhoover had to pause for a time. A minute later there were cries of Cleveland and Hill from opposite sides of the convention hall, and Mr. Beltzhoover hurried to a conclusion without alluding to Mr. Gorman, as he had intended to. At the conclusion of the chairman's speech, resolutions were adopted providing that the rules of the house of representatives should prevail, that committees on organization, credentials and resolutions should be appointed, and that all resolutions be referred without debate. Ex-Mayor Greery, of Altoona, offered a resolution recalling with pride the action of Governor Pattison and his official advisors of a former administration in preventing the unlawful combination of railroads and approving his course in instituting proceedings recently to annul the combination of the coal roads. It was received without demonstration and referred. The roll was then called for the appointment of members of three committees, and the convention then took a recess until 3 30 p. m.

Following are resolutions to be offered by the Guffey faction:

The resolutions reaffirmed the St. Louis platform of 1888, instructed the delegates at large and requested the district delegates to "support ex-President Cleveland as the choice of the democracy of Pennsylvania for nomination to the office of president of the United States," commended Governor Pattison, "for his faithful execution of the laws and his devotion to the best interests of the commonwealth," declared "tariff reform in the line of free raw materials for manufacturers reduced the cost of the necessaries of life to the laboring classes, was the great political question of the day." Declared that "a hard money currency, including the coinage of both gold and silver upon a basis of such equity as will cause the coined metals of both kinds to circulate freely together," to be the indispensible basis of a sound monetary system, condemned the administration of President Harrison on occount of the "force bill," the "billion dollar congress," corruption in the pension office, removal of railway clerks and its championship of the McKinley act, and declared the recent cost railroad consolidation unconstitutional. The sixth resolution declared that, in the language of Gov. Robert E. Pattison "the heads of departments have no legal or moral right to treat the offices under them as a personal appendage to be used in rewarding political friends and adherents to the detriment of the public service. The time has arrived when such practice should be stopped."

PALAICON'S TROUBLE.

His Enemies Threaten to Overthrow His Government.

CARACAS, Venezuela, April 13. As stated in these dispatches last night, General Crespo has returned and is now entrenched at Valencia. Recruits are coming to him in large numbers, and the struggle in reality has only begun. If the present rate of increase in his ranks is kept up he will soon be in a position to begin his long-contemplated march upon this city. The government forces have been ordered to move upon Valencia, but they do not seem to be in much of a hurry to do so. It is more than likely that Crespo will defeat them when they make the attack, and he will then march upon Caracas and endeavor to invest the place. Nearly all of Palaico's men are now in the field and this city is practically defenceless. Palaico is said to be fully prepared for any such emergency, and at the first intelligence of the serious route of his army he will try to leave the country. He could do so at a moment's notice, for he has transferred the bulk of his wealth to a place of safety and his fault is out of danger.

RIO JANEIRO, April 13.—The steamer conveying the new governor, Enkunk, to the state of Matto Grosso, arrived at its destination yesterday, but was not permitted to land. The governor was informed that the artillery at the fort would forcibly resist any such effort.

BARNEY FITZPATRICK.

Will He Again Become a Resident of This City?

The following, clipping from this morning's Indianapolis Journal explains itself: Barney Fitzpatrick, formerly of Fort Wayne, but now master mechanic of the shops of the Pennsylvania company at Wellville, was called to Indianapolis Saturday by Superintendent of Motive Power E. F. Lord, of the Big Four, who made him a tender of a position which, had he accepted, would have been in the nature of a promotion. Mr. Fitzpatrick took the offer under advisement and declined Mr. Lord's offer. It is stated that he was given to understand that promotion awaited him on the Pennsylvania shortly if he remained. This, it is thought, goes to corroborate the statement of important changes in the motive power department of the Pennsylvania company. It is stated by one who has just returned from Pinkaloo that Superintendent of Motive Power Casanave, who recently declined a $10,000 position with the Reading road, shortly is to be appointed general superintendent of motive power of the system, at which time Mr. George L. Potter, now master mechanic of the Fort Wayne shops, will be made superintendent of motive power, and Mr. Fitzpatrick, who was for years a foreman of a department at Fort Wayne, will succeed Mr. Potter as master mechanic at that point."

SENATOR FRED J. HAYDEN

Mentioned as a Candidate for Secretary of State.

The Daily News in last evening's issue, pays Senator Hayden the following compliment:

The News learns on quite good authority that State Senator Fred J. Hayden may possibly be a candidate for nomination at the democratic state convention for secretary of state. In case of the nomination of either Matthews or Shanklin, it would be good politics to have a strong man on the ticket from the democratic Gibraltar of the state, and the friends of Mr. Hayden will urge his candidacy if he gives his consent to enter the contest, and his wide acquaintance with affairs of state would make him a useful man in that place.

Mr. Hayden has never announced himself as a candidate for secretary of state, nor do we know whether he intends doing so. He made a good record in the house and senate and is well and favorably known throughout the state and no doubt would make an efficient state officer.

WANT A BRIDGE.

Residents of the East End Preparing to Ask for an Appropriation.

A Just Petition.

A petition is now being drawn up and will soon be in circulation for signers praying the county commissioners to erect a bridge across the Maumee river somewhere between Harmer street and Glasgow avenue. A similar petition was presented to the commissioners years ago, but nothing ever came of it, and now another effort is to be made in the same direction. As the city and country improves the necessity for a bridge spanning the Maumee river between Harmer street and Glasgow avenue becomes more apparent. There is no bridge across this river between Columbia street and New Haven, while in the opposite direction there are six bridges in a distance of not more than five miles. One of the arguments advanced by the advocates of the new bridge is the necessity of direct communication between the eastern part of the city and the Catholic cemetery, the Lutheran asylum, and Lakeside. The petitioners assert that such a bridge would be a great convenience to thousands of citizens, bring a due portion of travel through the east end, enhance the value of their property, and be a great benefit to the entire community. The petition will be ready for presentation to the county board at their next regular session.

REV. ERNEST H. SHANKS

Changes His Denominational Views and Becomes a Baptist.

For some two years and a half Rev. Ernest H. Shanks has been laboring with success and appreciation by his flock as pastor of the Church of God, on DeWald street, in this city. Recently the property was sold to the Congregationalists, and many of the membership are now seeking church homes elsewhere. The former pastor, Rev. Shanks, after prayerful and studious consideration, and with some sacrifice to family associations, has decided to affiliate himself with the First Baptist church, of this city. Last evening, in the presence of a large and attentive congregation at the gospel meetings under Pastor Northrop, which have been successfully carried on for some weeks, Rev. Shanks made a clear and forcible statement of his faith in Christ as a personal Saviour—a rich Christian experience, and of his determination to prepare himself more effectually for the gospel ministry, subject to the approval of the church. The official members of the Baptist church, and the congregation at large were delighted with his strong religious convictions, and he was unanimously received into membership. He left for Chicago today to attend the annual commencement of the Baptist Theological seminary at Morgan Park, a suburb of the Windy City. We bespeak for Rev. Shanks a bright and useful future in the ministry of the great denomination which he has deemed best to identify himself with, and his many friends in the city will watch his career with pleasure and interest.

NEED BE NO TROUBLE.

The Electric Railway Company Will Use the Western Union Poles.

O. L. Perry, local manager of the Western Union telegraph company, says that an amicable agreement can probably be reached between the telegraph company and the street railway company regarding the use of the present poles on Calhoun street for the street railway company's purpose. This would obviate the necessity of erecting more poles along the street, a fact that would be welcomed with delight by the average citizen, to whom the poles are an eye sore. The council last evening introduced an ordinance to compel the Western Union company to grant the electric railway company this privilege or remove its poles from Calhoun street.

SONS OF VETERANS.

The State Encampment Definitely Fixed for the First Week in August.

The date of the annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans of this state has been fixed for the first week in August, to be held in Fort Wayne. The committee of arrangements consists of Captains T. W. Blair, W. F. Geller, E. H. Bookwalter, Ed. Close and William Holmes, and the members have already commenced their work. Two thousand visitors will be here on this occasion. The Sons of Veterans usually meet in June, but that being the busy season on the farm, and many of the farmer boys desiring to attend, the date in August was selected.

A FAIR REBEL.

The Attraction at the Temple Tomorrow Night.

Henry P. Mawson's war drama, "A Fair Rebel," will be the attraction at the Temple tomorrow evening. The incidents of the play are taken from scenes of the late war, and are interesting and thrilling. It will be mounted with spectacular display, and a carefully selected company will interpret its various characters. The tunnel under death lobby prison showing the escape of the Union soldiers will be a feature of the play.

ST. PAUL IS SHAKY.

Big Chances for Fort Wayne to Join the Western League.

A telegram received in this city today places the St. Paul base ball club in doubtful light. The players of the club are indignant because two weeks salary is due them and not forthcoming. The Western league games open Saturday, at which time St. Paul is booked to play at Omaha. If the salaries are not then paid it can be safely put down that St. Paul will go to pieces. If this happens Fort Wayne will step into her shoes at once. This is what Fort Wayne is waiting for and there is plenty of money to back her up.

ON A TRAMP HUNT.

Sheriff Viberg and a Posse in Pursuit of a Desperate Gang—Court Notes.

Sheriff Viberg, Deputy Jim Hanna and a posse went out to the fair grounds this afternoon to arrest a gang of tramps said to have made their rendezvous there. West side people have been subjected to the insolence and depredations of these worthless fellows the past week until patience has ceased to be a virtue. The tramp nuisance.

William Franks, arrested by Officer Richter for assault, was fined $12.50 and William Driscoll, arrested by Officer Knock, for drunkenness, was fined $11.50 by the mayor.

James Jacobs has been acquitted by Squire Ryan of the charge of fast driving. Mr. Jacobs asserts that the character of the business he is connected with requires a good deal of "hustling," and although it is necessary to drive a horse pretty fast sometimes, it is not his desire to be brutal to the animal. The trucking business is conducted under a pressure and there is no time to lose. Horses are perhaps urged a little more than they ought to be in some other kinds of business, as well as this. It is the duty of mankind to treat all animals with humane consideration, and if Mr. Jacobs or anybody else takes horses beyond their natural strength a remedy should be supplied. THE SENTINEL is pleased to have the statement from Mr. Jacobs that he has exercised a care for a time past and will do so in the future as far as driving is concerned.

DEATH OF NELLIE CURTIS.

Pneumonia Carries Away a Bright and Interesting Girl.

Miss Nellie Curtis, who, for years made her home with Mrs. Margaret Ryan, died of pneumonia this morning at 10 o'clock, at the residence, corner of Lewis streets. Deceased was an amiable and accomplished young lady, whose sweet disposition endeared her to many friends. Her age was eighteen years. The funeral will be held Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. from the house.

Lulu, the ten-year old daughter of Charles Kreutzer, died last night of typhoid pneumonia. Funeral will be at 1 30 p. m. tomorrow from the house, 170 Madison street, and at 2 o'clock from the Cathedral.

THE SECOND WARD.

Mr. Cody and Mr. Ryan in Reply to the Card of Mr. Martin.

THE SENTINEL, in its issue of yesterday, published a card from Mr. Martin in reference to the counting of the ballots in the Second ward for delegates to the county democratic convention. In reply to it we publish today the cards of Mr. Cody and Mr. Ryan, who were inspectors of the primary. They are as follows:

EDITOR SENTINEL:

For Mr. Martin's information, and in reply to his card in last evening's issue, I state that I acted as inspector at the primary election for delegates, held on last Friday, in the Second ward. I counted all the ballots, and with the concurrence of the board, then destroyed them by fire, in accordance with the Australian law. Patrick Ryan did not count nor destroy a single ballot. Every vote for Mr. Mannix's delegates was counted as cast.

Respectfully,
MATTHEW CODY.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

Mr. Alexander Martin asks in a communication in your paper last evening what we did with the ballots cast for delegates in the Second ward at the recent primary election. Mr. Cody, Mr. Wolke and myself comprised the board. We counted the ballots carefully after the polls closed, credited each name with the votes cast and then we went over the tally sheet again to verify the count. It was correct, and according to the custom which has prevailed since the introduction of the Australian law, we burned the ballots. The count, I read, is questioned by Mr. Mannix. Well, he received every ballot cast for his delegates, as Mr. Cody, who was his friend and warm supporter, will verify.

The result of the primary as announced by us was absolutely correct to a vote. Mr. Mannix did not ask, as he states, that one of his men be allowed to witness the count, for if he did the request would have been cheerfully granted. We have nothing to hide, nothing to be ashamed of, and nothing to fear, for we have done our duty and nothing but our duty. I mean to say for myself that I count investigation and inquiry into our methods. In fact I have authorized my attorney to inaugurate proceedings likely to precipitate a hearing of this matter in court of justice. I will not be wronged by any man, nor will I be slandered by newspapers, if the law gives me any relief or permits of any action in defense of a good name which I value more dearly than all the sheriff offices in the state.

Yours truly

in little efforts to get well, and never dreamed any one could be cured. At this time I was unable to be down in the field to stir up all the time, and was unable to walk without crutches. I had to sit in a chair away from my body, and had to have my arms and legs bandaged to my body for relief. Into day, "Finally a friend came to see me, and at our house, urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began to take it, and to improve. My

Stomach Was All Out of Order

But the medicine soon cured that, and in six weeks I could see a change in the condition of the disease which had broken out on my body. It was driven to the surface by the Sarsaparilla, the sores began to heal, and the scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months, and up to that time, nearly two years, I have not spent a cent for medicine and my legs and arms are sound and well.

SPRING is rapidly passing away, and it won't be long before our summer will be here.

BEFORE the winter comes Fort Wayne will have a magnificent new city hall building.

THE common council has met for the last time in the old city hall. Good bye, old city hall!

PROMINENT local Republicans say their party will put a straight county ticket in the field this year.

HON. FRED J. HAYDEN, of this city, is being urged to be a candidate for secretary of state before the democratic state convention.

THE political campaign, now so rapidly approaching, promises to be one of the most hotly contested that we have ever had in this nation.

THE democratic city central committee will meet tomorrow night to arrange for the primaries for the purpose of nominating candidates for the city offices.

THE name of Senator Turpie is being spoken of as chairman of the democratic state convention which meets one week from tomorrow. We suggest Judge Zollars, of this city.

THE members of the people's party met last evening and elected the following permanent officers: President, George Jupp; vice president, C. E. Ferguson; second vice president, Henry Lapp; secretary, O. H. Ballard; treasurer, I. C. Kisler. The officers comprise the executive board. A committee was appointed to make the necessary steps for the establishment of a weekly paper.

UP to date there has been no one mentioned as candidate for republican nomination for congress from the Twelfth district. In speaking on this subject the Kendallville Sun says: "Personally, we are not interested, beyond a desire to have some one nominated who stands a possible chance of giving the Whitley county candidate a close race, at least. Such a man must from necessity have a wide acquaintanceship in the district, his name a familiar one, and possibly a close advi-er of a former republican congressman from Allen county."

PROBABLY the handsomest of the men whose names are most prominently before the public as possible candidates for the presidency is Governor Pattison, of Pennsylvania. He is a trifle more than six feet tall and is very gracefully though strongly proportioned, while his features are clean cut, and his chin shows firmness and character. His face is swarthy, so much so that with his black hair and eyebrows it gives him the appearance of an Italian, though he is a Marylander by birth and of Scotch descent. There is a sign of his Scotch ancestry in his hazel eyes, which contrast rather curiously with the dark brows above them.

The friends of Col. Isaiah B McDonald, of Whitley county, will present his name to the democratic state convention and ask for his nomination on the democratic ticket for the office of lieutenant governor. Whitley county for the last thirty years has never failed to give the democratic state ticket a good solid majority, and has never had any recognition or place on the state ticket. On April 12th, 1861, Colonel McDonald enlisted as a private soldier in company E, Seventeenth Indiana volunteers. During a service of more than three years, for good conduct as a soldier, he was the recipient of promotion by Governor Morton, President Lincoln and the governors, Arthur Boreman of West Virginia. He participated in many battles, as is shown by the war department records. He served both in the house and senate of the Indiana legislature and no man has a better record as a legislator. Colonel McDonald's nomination would add strength to the ticket.

WILL NEVER MEET AGAIN

In the Old City Hall—The Municipal Legislators Hold a Busy and Interesting Session.

The last meeting of the common council in the old city hall was held last evening, and before another meeting is held the council chamber will be removed to debris. The city fathers will hold the next meeting in the circuit court room. The session last evening was an interesting one there being quite an accumulation of business during the three weeks interim since the last meeting.

The bill of Wing & Mahurin for $2,012.12 for plans for new city hall, was on motion allowed.

Bertha Patterson, by Vesey A Heaton, her attorneys, asked the payment of $826, a judgment allowed her by the courts. Referred to judiciary committee, with power to act.

The board of county commissioners asked the paving of Calhoun street, north of the Nickel Plate. Referred to the committee on streets.

The trustees of St. Paul's lutheran church asked the issue of an overcharge for taxes on church property. Referred.

Property owners on East Wayne street asked the appointment of Herman Schoelker as inspector of the work to be done on that street. Referred to the committee on streets.

An electric light was asked at the intersection of Webster street and Creighton avenue. Referred.

A remonstrance against paving with brick the alley known as Harmony court. It was signed by A. C. Trentman and others. The remonstrance was referred to the committee on streets, city civil engineer and city attorney.

A remonstrance against the proposed sewer in the Ninth ward on Third street was received and referred to a special committee. The petition was signed by Fred C Bolte and sixty others.

A spirited remonstrance came from the Tenth ward, relative to the very poor drainage in that vicinity. Referred to the special committee. Several other remonstrances relative to poor drainage were read and referred to the special committee on sewers.

The mayor announced the receipt of communications from the Russian Famine Relief committee of Washington.

The committee on streets reported in favor of raising the sidewalks on Calhoun street, between Chestnut and Railroad streets, adverse to the resolution to grade Short street. It was reported that the committee ordered a Chapman & O'Neil street sweeper. In relation to the resolution of Councilman Meyer for a viaduct at Gay street it was recommended to leave the same in the hands of a special committee, consisting of the street committee, Delagrange and F C Meyer. The mayor appointed such a committee. The resolution of Councilman Buck for a vitrified brick pavement on Broadway from Wayne to Main street was reported adversely to.

William Reed was recommended for inspector of small sewer work, in the report of the sewer committee, and the report was concurred in.

Committee on taxes reported on the adjustment of several small claims.

A. B. Trentman's offer of $35,500 for the engine house property was not accepted, upon the recommendation of the committee on public grounds and buildings, who found that Mr. Trentman was unwilling to pay interest on the balance of purchase money due the city after the first payment.

The bond of H. C. Graffe as water works trustee by appointment to succeed C. Bosker, resigned, was accepted. The bond is in the sum of $20,000, with Michael Bailes and Charles F. Muhlenbrock as sureties.

The bond of William Rohrer as policeman, in the sum of $1,000, was received and accepted, the bond being signed by William Rohrer and Philip Lindlag and George Broward as sureties.

Plumbers will be licensed. An ordinance was read the first and second time and will be passed at the next meeting of the council, requiring plumbers tapping the gas mains to have a license and file a bond to keep trenches in repair for a term of six months, and to indemnify the city for damage or injury that may result because of their failure to do so. The clerk will furnish the gas companies having franchises in the city a list of licensed plumbers. The ordinance was referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances.

More double tracks are wanted by the Fort Wayne Street Railway company for its new electric system. An ordinance was presented by Councilman William Meyer to permit the company to extend its double track as follows: From present north terminus on Calhoun street just north of Main to Superior, thence west to Plum, thence to within 100 feet of the St. Mary's river bridge. On Main from switch between Calhoun and Court to Lafayette; and on Calhoun street from Highland street to Butler street. Upon the motion of Councilman Boltz the matter was referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances, the street committee, and the city attorney, to report at a special meeting of the council next Friday evening, so as to not delay the street railway company in the work. Councilman Michael advised the committees to interview property owners on the subject. Hon. J. M Barrett, on behalf of the street railway company, showed wherein the additional double track was necessary to facilitate the operation of cars by electricity.

In relation to the resolution to remove the electric lights from the court house tower and distribute them, R T McDonald, of the electric company, said he would have to have the city make such change, and if the lights were left where they were he would have three extra lights put up that would not cost the city a cent, as follows: one at the corner of Jackson and Jefferson streets, one at the corner of Calhoun and Berry, one at the corner of DeWald and Harrison. Mr. Boltz introduced a resolution to accept the proposition saying that it was the same as $400 a year to the city for nothing.

A committee was instructed to consult with the Western Union Telegraph company as to the using their poles on Calhoun street for the Electric Railway company's purpose, and, in case the Western Union refuse the request, the committee on ordinances shall introduce an ordinance requiring them to remove their poles from Calhoun street.

The committee on public grounds and buildings was instructed to have the furniture of the city offices removed to the temporary quarters in Bank Block as speedily as possible.

F C Meyer introduced a resolution to have a fund created for the repairs of paved streets. Referred.

In the matter of the opening of Greeley street, the committee on streets reported adversely to the prayer of the petitioner, Charles McCulloch, for opening the thoroughfare. Concurred in.

Dr Metcalf called the attention of the council to the bad condition of a number of the alleys in the city. He recommended that the alleys be paved with brick rather than wood. Referred to committee on streets.

Resolutions were adopted as follows: For relaying a sidewalk on north side of Washington street, from Hanna street to one square east, for relaying a sidewalk on the east side of Gay street, from Creighton avenue to Pontiac, for relaying sidewalk on west side of Fairfield avenue, from Taylor street to Washington street; for a sidewalk on west side of Harrison street, from lot 134 Williams addition to Allen street; for relaying sidewalk on west side of Broadway, from Chicago street to first alley south of Pritchard street; to give ten days' notice to the Wabash railroad company to construct a large culvert on the south side of tracks at Taylor street.

IN HIS 100TH YEAR.

Pierce Crotty, Oldest Inhabitant of New York City.

Pierce Crotty, of New York, has lived in that city more than seventy-five years. He was born in Ardmore, Ireland, in 1784. He is withered and feeble, of course, but has good eyesight, fair hearing, a healthy appetite and sound teeth to assist his gratification, considerable conversational ability and the disposition to enjoy a good laugh with his friends. The pity is, however, that his memory is failing, and there is not much opportunity remaining in which to invite his recollections of a longago past. He had twenty six brothers and sisters. In 1815 he came to America, but not until 1828 did he use the privilege of casting a vote for president. His preference was for Andrew Jackson, of glorious memory. He was forty-three years in the employment of the gas company by whose kindness his long protracted decline is made comfortable. Temperance people will be glad to learn that this man than centenarian has never taken strong drink as a beverage nor used tobacco in any form. He was about sixty-five years old when he married the only wife of his long pilgrimage. She died after twenty-eight years of mateship with him. Great interest attaches to the simple life story of a man who was born before the constitution of the United States was ratified.

MR. P. S. SKELLY, of No 11 McClellan St.

Mr. P. S Skelly, of No 11 McClellan street, this city, the well known officer of the law, said to the reporter "I have had a very bad cough which baffled all treatment. Since using Dr. Stackhouse's treatment I have been almost entirely relieved."

No. 11 McClellan St.

Mr John C. Stier, of No. 16 West Main St., also says: "About three years ago I caught a severe cold, which I could not throw off, as I seemed to take cold all the time. My nose stopped up often and felt sore and inflamed. My mouth was dry on waking up. There was a feeling of fullness in the throat. I had to hawk and spit to keep it clear. I had a dry cough. My appetite was variable. I felt heavy and oppressed after eating and lately I began to feel nauseated after meals. My sleep was restless and disturbed by waking frequently. Since taking treatment of the Stackhouse Medical Institute, corner of Clinton and Wayne streets, this city, my cold has left me. I can breathe with freedom. I rest well. My appetite is good. I feel I am on the high road to recovery.

A Card.

This is a card of thanks tendered the Stackhouse Medical Institute, to be freely used as a testimonial to the remarkable and gratifying efficacy of their system of treating catarrh: For some months I had been troubled severely with a dull and encrusted condition of mind, accompanied with frequent and violent headaches. At times these would actually unfit me for business or connected thought of any kind. These attacks were most violent during periods of wet weather my trouble was also accompanied with a distressing cough that awakened me when I lay down, and was so violent as to frequently compel me to arise from my bed and walk the floor till the attack had subsided. I had tried many remedies when I called on the Stackhouse Institute for treatment, but without any permanent resultant good. I take pleasure in saying that the first treatment gave me instantaneous relief. The cough has entirely gone. The headaches are things of the past.

FRANK L. A. MITCHELL.

Frank L. A Mitchell is bookkeeper for the Monroe Paper company, at Monroe, Mich. Said he to the reporter: "I had not been able to stay in any through my left nostril for six years. I consulted several physicians, who attempted to remove the obstruction, but failed. I resumed to have a cold all the time. I was annoyed by coarse mucus in my ears. I had headache often. I determined to see what aspecialist could do for me. Knowing the reputation of the Stackhouse Institute, I called there one afternoon into tolerable. They removed it while I waited, without causing me any pain, and with a facility that excited my surprise. I came away well, and have had no trouble since. The air passage on the left side is even more clear than the right. The doctor said I had a very large polypus, and one difficult to remove. I do not have colds or headaches. I am all right now."

WORST FORM ECZEMA

Baffled Best Medical Skill for Eight Months. Cured in Two Months by Cuticura Remedies.

This is to certify that a child of mine had Eczema in its worst form, and which baffled the best medical skill that could be employed here. The little sufferer was wrapped in agony for at least eight months. Six months of that time its suffering was simply untold, but I began the use of the Cuticura Remedies, and in two months the awful disease had covered its ravages, and my darling boy had rest, and to all appearance the disease had yielded, but I continued the medicine for several months after the disease could be seen of it on any part of his body. The doctors here watched the disease with much interest, and could say "Well done!" The case was known far and wide, and very long was much surprised. But thanks to CUTICURA REMEDIES. Could they be anything on earth that would cause a father to be foolish enough to allow the little innocent one to undergo such a terrible ordeal? Respectfully, J. A. NICOLES, Bunker Hill, Ind.

A child was brought to me with chronic eczema that had defied splendid treatment from many good doctors. As a regular M. D., should have continued similar treatment, but thought it useless. So put it on CUTICURA. The child is well.
